

KS4 Sociology Learning Journey

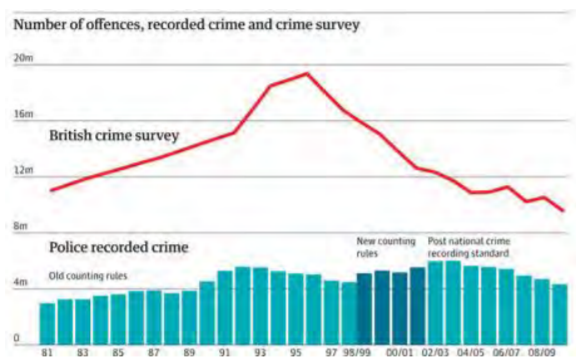

In Sociology we support students in developing strong critical thinking skills, exposing students to key historical sociologists and their varied ideas. Students are empowered to consider local and global perspectives on race, gender, equality and the functioning of society. This leads them through a fulfilling curriculum towards a qualification-enabled future.

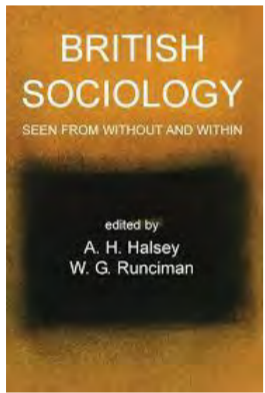

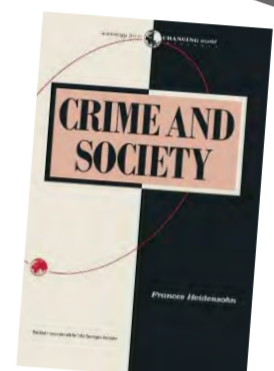

Consolidation of knowledge and skills

GCSE Exams

Assessment point

Crime and Deviance

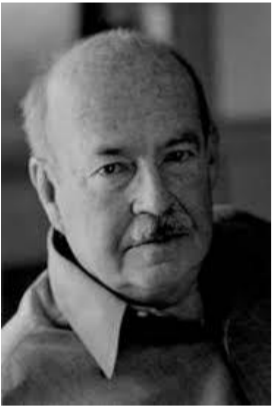

Education

Assessment point

YEAR 11

Education

Social Stratification

Assessment point

Assessment point

Families

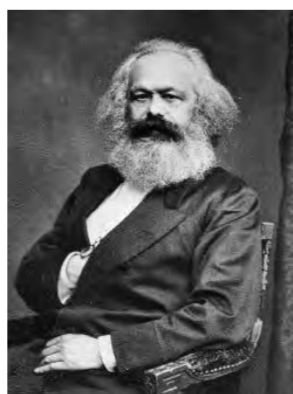

Assessment point

Key
Paper 1:
Section A:
Families
Section B:
Education

Paper 2:
Section A:
Crime and
Deviance
Section B:
Social
Stratification

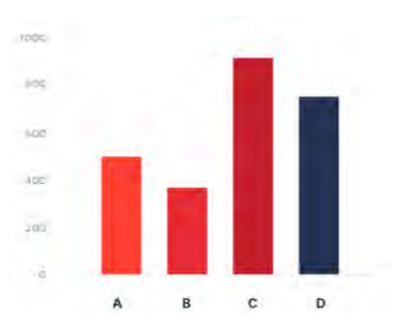

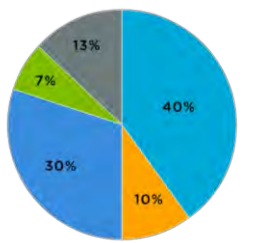

YEAR 10

Introduction to Sociology

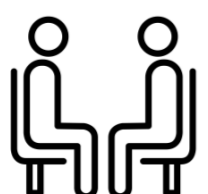

Research Methods

Potential career pathways include:

Teaching

Counselling

Law

Journalism

Social Work

Politics

Charity work